

Cagamas Holdings appointed new directors

CAGAMAS Holdings Bhd has appointed Shaik Abdul Rasheed Abdul Ghaffour (picture) and Wan Hanisah Wan Ibrahim as new non-EDs. Shaik Abdul Rasheed is an assistant governor of Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) responsible for the central bank's monetary and economics sector, which includes the international relations and statistical services functions. He is a member of the bank's monetary policy committee, the management committee, the reserve management committee and the risk management committee. He had also served a two-year secondment as the alternate ED for Malaysia on the executive board of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) in Washington DC. With over 30 years experience at BNM, Wan Hanisah retired as director for the central bank's portal for information on advise and services known by its Malay acronym of LINK as well as regional offices department. She had also served as director of the international department, treasury, and foreign-exchange administration. She was also a member of the National Investment Committee of Malaysia.
